

Let's Practice!

A new way to learn!

Instructions: Match the sentences on the left with their missing parts on the right.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Would you like ... | a. achieve far more than expected! |
| 2. Learning in their sleep has helped them to ... | b. help you only remember things that you've already learned while awake. |
| 3. These students haven't been spending time ... | c. to go to bed? |
| 4. Unfortunately, sleep learning tends to ... | d. staring into space in the evening. |

Let's Practice!

Can we really learn while we sleep?

Instructions: Select all the correct options.

Which of these sentences are correct?

1. Would you like to go to bed while a soothing voice have whispered a lesson into your sleeping ears?
2. Specialists have run a number of experiments.
3. Learning in their sleep has helped them to achieve far more than expected!
4. In the study, specialists have experimented by teaching people English over the radio.
5. Students did ten lessons every two weeks.
6. Before they went to sleep, they have completed one lesson in English grammar and vocabulary.
7. Then, peaceful music put them to sleep.
8. A quiet voice have whispered the lesson over again while they were slumbering.