

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

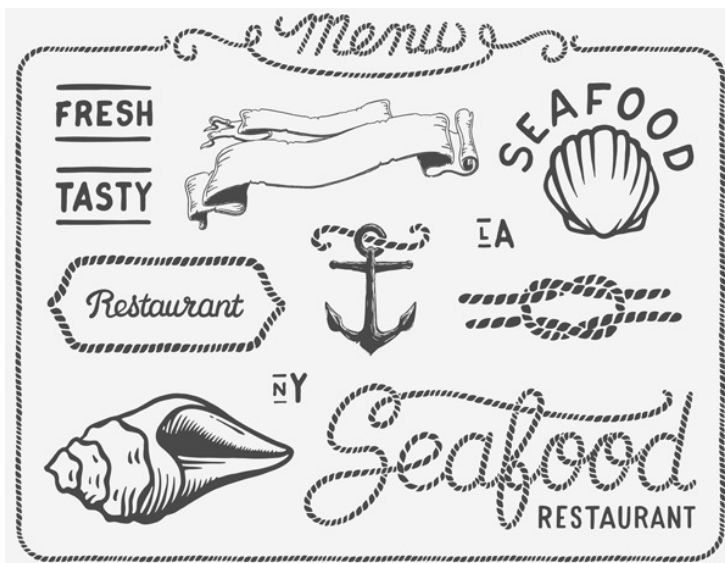

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It was so unusual!

Learning Outcome

Relate information about common solutions to problems in spoken or written documents.

Ask your partner:

- What fun themed restaurant, hotel or party have you been to?
- What was the theme?
- What did it look like?

Can Do Statements

- I can discuss coincidences, strange events or superstitions.
- I can talk about things that happened or have happened.
- I can talk about my attitudes toward an action.

Let's Explore!

They stayed at the 150-year-old Carleton County Gaol!

* "Gaol" is the historical spelling of the word jail.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

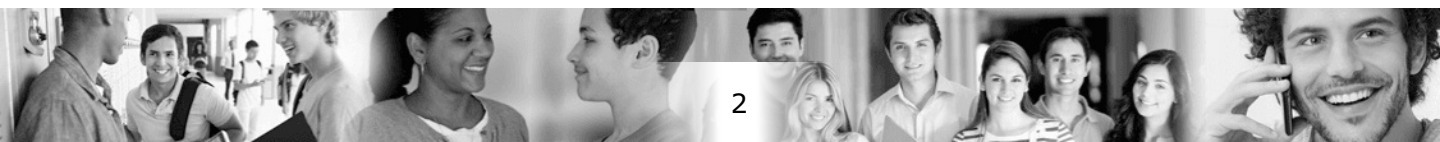

I have never slept in jail, but my boyfriend surprised me with an impromptu visit to Ottawa to do just that. I appreciate having new experiences, but spending time sitting in a jail cell was hardly at the top of my list.

When we arrived at the Carleton County Gaol, the 150-year-old building looked less formidable than I imagined. Surprisingly, I have visited several old jails in the past. This one was rather quaint in comparison. The stone and brick walls have weathered well. They looked golden-rose in the evening light.

The owners have strived to retain a feeling of authenticity in the cells. Even the old barred doors are still in place. You can't help feeling a little closed in though. They haven't turned the cells into luxury suites. Although they have upgraded a little. We sat in a lounge to relax, had complimentary breakfast arrive at our cell door in the morning and of course there was wifi too!

In the morning we went on a free tour. A guide took us all around the heritage building. She enjoyed scaring us with tales of ghosts who supposedly walk there. Needless to say, we didn't consider staying again that night!

The hostel has become well-known by the adventurous. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend it. If you've dreamed about roughing it in a cell but haven't got a lot to spend, this is the place to come. I had a great time!

Let's Practice!

Let's talk about jails!

Instructions: Select the incorrect words in the sentence.

1. I has never slept in a jail.
2. Surprisingly, I have visiting several old jails in the past.
3. They hasn't turned the cells into luxury suites.
4. However, they have upgrade a little.
5. The hostel have become well-known by the adventurous.

Let's Practice!

Staying at a jailhouse hostel!

Instructions: Read the sentences below, circle the incorrect words, and write the correct ones above them.

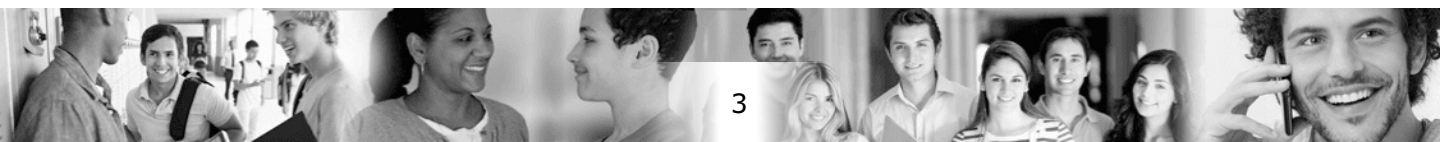

1. You can't helped feelis a little closed in though.

2. She enjoying scare us with tales of ghosts.

3. We didn't consideration stayed again that night!

4. The owners have strived to a feeling of authenticity in the cells.

5. I could hesitating to recommend it.

Extension Activity

Write about a themed hotel or restaurant.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Look up the Lockup - a prison-themed restaurant in Japan or another themed restaurant or hotel and read or watch a video about it.
- Make notes about the themed restaurant or hotel.
- Write up a description of the place.
- Use verb plus infinitive and verb plus gerund as often as you can.
- Read your description aloud to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I look up a themed restaurant or hotel and make notes.

☐ ☐

I write a description of the themed restaurant or hotel.

☐ ☐

I use verb plus infinitive and verb plus gerund where I can.

☐ ☐

I share my description with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- jail (noun): a prison
e.g. I have never slept in jail.
- impromptu (adjective): done without preparation
e.g. My boyfriend surprised me with an impromptu visit to Ottawa to do just that.
- at the top of my list (expression): first of the things that I want to do e.g. Spending time sitting in a jail cell was hardly at the top of my list.
- formidable (adjective): inspiring fear
e.g. The 150-year-old building looked less formidable than I imagined.
- to weather (verb): to change from being exposed to the weather
e.g. The stone and brick walls have weathered well.
- quaint (adjective): old-fashioned charm
e.g. This one was rather quaint in comparison.
- to strive (verb): to try hard e.g. They strived to keep their customers.
- authenticity (noun): genuine; as it was originally e.g. The owners have strived to retain a feeling of authenticity in the cells.
- barred (adjective): enclosed with bars
e.g. Even the old barred doors are still in place.

Learning Points

Present Perfect Tense vs. Past Simple

You use the Present Perfect:

- For something that started in the past and continues in the present.

Example:

I have been married for ten years.

- For something that has been done several times.

Example:

She has sung that song a lot of times. I love it!!

- For experiences up to the present.

Example:

This is the worst experience I've ever had.

- For something that happened in the past but is relevant at the time of speaking.

Example:

I can't get into the hotel. I've lost my key.

- For referring to a time that is not yet finished.

Example:

They have bought a new house this week.

You use the Simple Past:

- For something that was finished at a certain period of time.

Example:

The architect finished the building in 1990.

Sentence	When?
When we arrived at the Carleton County Gaol, the 150-year-old building looked less formidable than I imagined.	when we arrived
They looked golden-rose in the evening light.	the night we stayed there
I have never slept in jail.	at any time in my life
The stone and brick walls have weathered well.	over the years since they were built

Examples:

Learning Points

- Surprisingly, I have visited several old jails in the past.
- They haven't turned the cells into luxury suites.
- Although they have upgraded a little.
- The hostel has become well-known by the adventurous.
- My boyfriend surprised me with an impromptu visit to Ottawa to do just that.
- This one was rather quaint in comparison.
- We sat in a lounge to relax, had complimentary breakfast arrive at our cell door in the morning and of course there was WiFi too!

Learning Points

Gerunds and Infinitives

A gerund is a verb ending with -ing (doing).

An infinitive is to + verb (to do).

There are some verbs that can only be followed by a gerund:

appreciate (doing)
can't help (doing)
enjoy (doing)
spend time (doing)
consider (doing)
dream about (doing)

Example:

I appreciate having new experiences.

A phrasal verb is always followed by a gerund.

Example:

If you've dreamed about roughing it in a cell, this is the place to come.

There are some verbs that can only be followed by an infinitive:

strive (to do)
hesitate (to do)

Example:

I wouldn't hesitate to recommend it.

Examples:

- Spending time sitting in a jail cell was hardly at the top of my list.
- You can't help feeling a little closed in though.
- She enjoyed scaring us with tales of ghosts.
- We didn't consider staying again that night!
- The owners have strived to retain a feeling of authenticity in the cells.

